

MURIFORM

Meaning: Muriform (adjective): having a shape or form resembling that of a mouse; often used to describe intricate or complex patterns.

1. The muriform shape of the ancient artifact suggested it had a complex history.
2. As the artist painted, the muriform patterns began to emerge, captivating all who viewed them.
3. The scientist noted that the muriform structure of the organism made it unique among its peers.
4. Her description of the muriform design in the textile caught the attention of the fashion industry.
5. In the garden, the muriform arrangement of the flowers created a stunning visual effect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muriform>