

MURINGER

Meaning: MURINGER (noun): a vivid and harmonious blending of colors in the sky, especially at sunset, resembling a mural.

1. The artist skillfully captured the essence of the landscape, creating a stunning mural that spoke of a bygone era.
2. As the sun set over the city, the vibrant colors of the sky merged into a beautiful muringer, painting a perfect end to the day.
3. During the festival, the streets were filled with laughter and joy, a muringer of community spirit that brought everyone together.
4. The old stone walls of the castle were adorned with intricate carvings, each telling a story of love and war, making it a true muringer of history.
5. In the quiet moments of contemplation, she found solace in her garden, a muringer of peace amidst the chaos of life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muringer>