

MURKILY

Meaning: MURKILY: in a manner that is dark, dim, or cloudy, often obscuring clarity or visibility.

1. The forest was murkily lit, shrouded in a dense fog that blurred the outlines of the trees.
2. As she peered into the murkily swirling waters, a sense of unease washed over her.
3. His thoughts drifted murkily, tangled in a web of confusion and doubt about his future.
4. The old photograph was murkily faded, yet it still captured the essence of happier times.
5. They navigated the murkily dark alley, relying on their instincts to guide them safely home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/murkily>