

MURKINESS

Meaning: MURKINESS: the quality of being dark, cloudy, or unclear, often referring to water or atmospheric conditions that hinder visibility.

1. The murkiness of the water made it difficult to see what lay beneath the surface.
2. As the fog rolled in, the murkiness enveloped the landscape, creating an eerie atmosphere.
3. She found solace in the murkiness of her thoughts, allowing her creativity to flourish.
4. The artist captured the murkiness of the stormy sky in his latest painting, evoking a sense of foreboding.
5. In the murkiness of the forest, shadows danced and whispers seemed to echo through the trees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/murkiness>