

MURMUR

Meaning: MURMUR (noun): a soft, low, and indistinct sound, often associated with gentle movement or quiet conversation.

1. The murmur of the river provided a soothing backdrop to their conversation.
2. As the sun set, a gentle murmur swept through the crowd at the outdoor concert.
3. She could hear the murmur of the leaves rustling in the soft breeze.
4. In the quiet library, the only sound was the murmur of pages being turned.
5. His voice was barely a murmur, lost among the laughter and chatter of the party.
6. The gentle murmur of the stream provided a soothing backdrop to their conversation.
7. As she read the poem aloud, a murmur of appreciation spread through the audience.
8. In the quiet library, the only sound was the soft murmur of turning pages.
9. He could hear the murmur of the crowd growing louder as the concert began.
10. The murmur of discontent among the villagers signaled trouble ahead.
11. The gentle murmur of the stream created a peaceful atmosphere in the garden.
12. As the crowd began to murmur in anticipation, the speaker took the stage.
13. She could hear the soft murmur of voices coming from the next room.
14. The murmur of the wind through the trees was a soothing backdrop to their conversation.
15. He spoke in a murmur, barely audible over the noise of the bustling café.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/murmur>