

MURMURING

Meaning: MURMURING: a soft, indistinct sound made by a group of people or natural elements, often suggesting low conversation or gentle rustling.

1. The murmurings of the crowd grew louder as the speaker took the stage.
2. She could hear the soft murmuring of the leaves in the gentle breeze.
3. In the quiet library, a murmurings of discussion filled the air as students collaborated.
4. The murmurings of the stream provided a soothing background while she read her book.
5. His murmuring reassurance helped calm her nerves before the big presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/murmuring>