

MURRHINE

Meaning: MURRHINE: a type of highly valued, often ornate vase or vessel, typically made from a rare, translucent material, prized in ancient Rome for its beauty and craftsmanship.

1. The ancient Romans prized murrhine vases for their exquisite beauty and rarity.
2. Archaeologists uncovered a collection of murrhine artifacts in a forgotten villa outside Pompeii.
3. The rich, swirling patterns of the murrhine bowl captured the light beautifully, making it a focal point at the dinner table.
4. Murrhine, often thought to be a type of glass, was actually a unique stoneware that was highly sought after in antiquity.
5. Legends suggest that murrhine vessels had the ability to change color based on the quality of the wine they contained.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/murrhine>