

MUSCARIFORM

Meaning: MUSCARIFORM: resembling or having characteristics similar to those of mushrooms or fungi.

1. The muscariform structure of the plant's leaves resembles that of certain fungi.
2. Researchers noted that the muscariform characteristics of the creature helped it adapt to its environment.
3. In her latest paper, she described a new species with distinctly muscariform traits.
4. The artist's latest sculpture features a muscariform design, evoking the beauty of nature.
5. During the expedition, they discovered a muscariform organism that had never been documented before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muscariform>