

MUSS

Meaning: MUSS (verb): to make something untidy or disheveled, often by mixing or disturbing its arrangement.

1. The chef decided to muss the salad to incorporate all the flavors.
 2. As the wind picked up, the leaves began to muss around the garden.
 3. He didn't want to muss his neatly arranged papers before the meeting.
 4. After playing in the waves, her hair was entirely mussed by the sea breeze.
 5. The children liked to muss their toys after finishing their playtime.
 6. She started to muss her hair in frustration after hearing the bad news.
 7. The children began to muss their neatly arranged toys during playtime.
 8. He always seemed to muss his carefully written essays with his careless edits.
 9. The wind did its best to muss her carefully styled outfit as she walked outside.
 10. After the storm, the garden looked beautiful yet mussed, with petals and leaves scattered everywhere.
 11. She musters all her strength to finish the race despite the pain.
 12. The chef decided to muss the presentation of the dish for a more rustic look.
 13. After playing in the wind, their hair was completely mussed up and wild.
 14. He tried to keep the conversation serious, but her jokes always seemed to muss his focus.
 15. The children loved to muss up the neatly arranged toys in the playroom.
 16. You must muss your hair if you want that carefree look.
 17. The kids love to muss up the living room before bedtime.
 18. Don't muss up your neat notes during the meeting.
 19. She tried to avoid any actions that might muss her dress before the event.
 20. The playful puppy began to muss the neatly arranged cushions on the sofa.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muss>