

MUTACISM

Meaning: Mutacism is the process by which genetic mutations result in significant changes to an organism's phenotype over generations.

1. Mutacism often leads to significant changes in an organism's phenotype over generations.
2. The researchers were fascinated by the concept of mutacism and its implications for evolutionary biology.
3. In some cases, mutacism can result in beneficial traits that enhance survival in changing environments.
4. Understanding mutacism is crucial for geneticists studying the mechanisms of adaptation.
5. The phenomenon of mutacism challenges traditional views on inheritance and genetic stability.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mutacism>