

MUTE

Meaning: MUTE (adjective): Silent or unable to speak; also refers to the action of silencing sound, such as by using a button or control.

1. She pressed the mute button on the remote to avoid the commercial break.
2. The classroom fell silent as the teacher asked everyone to be mute during the exam.
3. He chose to mute his microphone during the video call to limit distractions.
4. The dog remained mute, but his eyes spoke volumes about his feelings.
5. The actor's performance was so powerful that words were almost rendered mute in comparison.
6. The sudden silence in the room made her feel even more mute than she already was.
7. He pressed the mute button during the commercial break to avoid the annoying ads.
8. In a world filled with noise, sometimes the most powerful voice is the one that chooses to be mute.
9. She felt mute in the conversation, unable to find the right words to express her thoughts.
10. The movie's emotional climax left the audience in a mute state of reflection.
11. She decided to mute her phone during the meeting to avoid distractions.
12. The teacher asked the students to mute their microphones while the presentation was in progress.
13. After realizing he was interrupting, he quickly muted his audio before speaking.
14. The film was so captivating that he forgot to mute his laughter in the quiet theater.
15. To maintain a peaceful environment, the café encouraged patrons to mute their devices.
16. The room fell silent as he pressed the mute button on the remote.
17. She chose to remain mute during the debate, allowing others to voice their opinions.
18. After the loud argument, a heavy mute settled over the gathering.
19. He often felt mute in conversations where he struggled to find the right words.
20. The animal was naturally mute, but its expressive eyes conveyed a world of emotions.
21. The room fell silent as he pressed the mute button during the heated debate.

22. She preferred to mute her phone while studying to avoid distractions.
23. The movie was captivating, but the dialogue was so poor that I had to mute it.
24. In the meeting, he chose to remain mute, letting others share their opinions first.
25. To maintain a peaceful environment, the teacher asked the students to mute their devices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mute>