

MUTENESS

Meaning: Muteness refers to the state of being silent or unable to speak, often conveying unexpressed thoughts or emotions.

1. Her muteness in the meeting was noticeable, leaving others to wonder about her thoughts.
2. The artist's work expressed a profound sense of muteness, capturing emotions that words could not convey.
3. In a world filled with noise, his muteness became a refuge for introspection and deep thought.
4. Despite her muteness, she communicated beautifully through her expressive gestures and eyes.
5. The novel explored themes of isolation and muteness, illustrating the struggles of those who feel unheard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muteness>