

MUTTER

Meaning: Mutter: to speak softly or indistinctly, often in a low voice or in a way that is difficult to hear, typically expressing discontent or nostalgia.

1. She began to mutter under her breath when she realized she had forgotten her keys.
2. The old man would often mutter about the good old days while sitting on his porch.
3. In frustration, he muttered something that no one else could hear.
4. As the teacher spoke, some students started to mutter complaints to each other.
5. She couldn't help but mutter a sarcastic comment after hearing his suggestion.
6. She began to mutter to herself as she searched for her keys.
7. The teacher caught him muttering complaints under his breath during the lecture.
8. As the storm approached, the villagers could be heard muttering about the impending danger.
9. He would often mutter sweet nothings to her, making her smile with delight.
10. In a fit of frustration, she muttered a few choice words that made her friend laugh.
11. As the teacher explained the complex concept, some students started to mutter in confusion.
12. He muttered a few words of frustration before storming out of the room.
13. In the quiet library, she could hear him mutter to himself about the book he was reading.
14. The crowd began to mutter discontentedly when the concert was delayed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mutter>