

MUTUALLY

Meaning: In a manner that involves reciprocal benefits or support between two or more parties.

1. The two companies entered into a mutually beneficial agreement that enhanced their market positions.
2. They agreed to support each other mutually in their efforts to promote environmental sustainability.
3. The siblings decided to share their resources mutually, ensuring that both households thrived during tough times.
4. The project's success relied on the team members' ability to communicate mutually and respect each other's ideas.
5. In a mutually respectful relationship, both partners prioritize each other's needs and aspirations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mutually>