

MUZZINESS

Meaning: Muzziness refers to a state of mental fogginess or confusion, often characterized by difficulty in thinking clearly or concentrating.

1. The morning after the party was filled with a lingering sense of muffled thoughts and general muzziness.
2. She could hardly concentrate on her work due to the muzziness that enveloped her mind after a restless night.
3. The medication left him in a state of muzziness, making it difficult to articulate his thoughts clearly.
4. As she sipped her coffee, the muzziness from her sleep began to fade, allowing her to focus on the day ahead.
5. His head was filled with muzziness, a frustrating haze that made simple decisions feel overwhelming.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/muzziness>