

MYOPIC

Meaning: Myopic: lacking foresight or discernment; narrow-minded or limited in perspective.

1. Her myopic view of the world prevented her from seeing the broader implications of her actions.
2. The company's myopic focus on short-term profits led to significant losses in the long run.
3. His myopic understanding of the issue limited the discussion to surface-level arguments.
4. Many critics argue that myopic policies fail to address the root causes of societal problems.
5. She realized that being myopic in her goals would ultimately hinder her personal growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/myopic>