

MYOSIS

Meaning: Miosis is the constriction of the pupil of the eye, often occurring in response to bright light or certain medications.

1. Miosis is often observed in patients who have taken certain types of medications, such as opioids.
2. The ophthalmologist explained that miosis can result from exposure to bright light as the pupil constricts.
3. In some cases, miosis can be a sign of underlying neurological conditions that require further investigation.
4. The nurse noted the patient's miosis during the examination and reported it to the physician for assessment.
5. Understanding the mechanism of miosis can help in diagnosing various eye disorders and systemic diseases.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miosis>