

NA

Meaning: NA: an abbreviation indicating that a value or response is not applicable or not available in a given context, often used in data tables and surveys.

1. NA is often used in data tables to indicate that a value is not applicable.
2. The survey results showed that NA responses were common among certain demographics.
3. In the context of scientific research, NA can signify instances where data is missing or irrelevant.
4. When reviewing the report, I noticed that several entries were marked as NA, raising questions about the data collection process.
5. In financial statements, NA may appear when a particular metric does not pertain to the company in question.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/na>