

NACREOUS

Meaning: NACREOUS: having a pearly luster or iridescent quality, resembling the appearance of mother-of-pearl.

1. The nacreous sheen of the abalone shell caught the sunlight beautifully.
2. Her dress had a nacreous finish that shimmered with every movement.
3. The artist used nacreous paint to give depth to the ocean scene.
4. As the morning light filtered through the clouds, the sky took on a nacreous hue.
5. The nacreous layer of the pearl inside the oyster was a stunning sight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nacreous>