

NAMER

Meaning: Namer (noun): a person who assigns names or titles, often creatively or uniquely, particularly in artistic or branding contexts.

1. The artist became known as a talented namer, giving unique titles to her paintings.
2. In a world full of generic products, a creative namer can make all the difference in branding.
3. The namer of our group always had the best ideas for catchy team names at competitions.
4. As a professional namer, he was responsible for creating memorable names for new technology startups.
5. Her role as a namer in the marketing team was crucial for the success of the product launch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/namer>