NAPIFORM

Meaning: Napiform (adjective): having a shape resembling a turnip or bulb, typically swollen at the base and tapering towards the top.

1. The napiform shape of the gourd made it a unique centerpiece for the autumn display.
2. Botanists often study napiform roots to better understand their growth patterns and nutrient storage.
3. In the ancient herbal texts, the napiform bulb was prized for its medicinal properties.
4. The artist's depiction of the napiform figure captured both its whimsy and its organic form.
5. Farmers are increasingly interested in cultivating napiform vegetables for their distinctive appearance and taste.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/napiform