

NARCOSIS

Meaning: Narcosis is a state of unconsciousness or sedation induced by drugs, often used during medical procedures.

1. The patient entered a state of narcosis during the surgical procedure.
2. In the depths of narcosis, he was completely unaware of the chaos around him.
3. The anesthesiologist monitored the levels of narcosis to ensure the patient's safety.
4. Certain medications can induce narcosis, leading to a temporary loss of consciousness.
5. The rapid onset of narcosis was evident as the sedative took effect.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/narcosis>