

NARCOTIC

Meaning: A narcotic is a substance that relieves pain and induces sleep, often leading to dependence or addiction.

1. The doctor prescribed a narcotic to help manage her chronic pain.
2. After a long night of partying, he realized he had become dependent on narcotics.
3. The police found a stash of narcotic substances during the raid on the suspected dealer's home.
4. Narcotic drugs can have serious side effects if not used under medical supervision.
5. His struggle with addiction to narcotics affected every aspect of his life.
6. The doctor prescribed a narcotic to help manage her severe pain after surgery.
7. Law enforcement agencies are cracking down on the illegal narcotic trade in the region.
8. He felt a wave of relaxation wash over him after taking the prescribed narcotic.
9. The documentary explored the effects of narcotic addiction on families and communities.
10. She was wary of using narcotics, having seen the devastating impacts they had on her friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/narcotic>