

NARCOTINIC

Meaning: Narcotinic refers to substances or compounds that have properties similar to narcotics, particularly in their ability to affect the central nervous system and provide pain relief.

1. The research team discovered a new compound with narcotinic properties that could aid in pain relief.
2. Her fascination with narcotinic substances led her to explore their effects on the central nervous system.
3. Many narcotinic agents are derived from plants known for their medicinal qualities.
4. The study examined the long-term impact of narcotinic drugs on cognitive function.
5. Understanding the mechanisms of narcotinic receptors is crucial for developing effective treatments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/narcotinic>