

NARRATION

Meaning: Narration is the act or process of telling a story or describing events, often characterized by a particular style or voice that engages the audience.

1. The narration of the story captivated the audience from the very beginning.
2. In her novel, the author's unique style of narration brought the characters to life.
3. He struggled with the narration of the documentary, aiming to convey the emotions accurately.
4. The narration was so compelling that it made even the most mundane events seem exciting.
5. With a soothing voice, the narrator's narration created a calming atmosphere for listeners.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/narration>