

NARRATIVELY

Meaning: NARRATIVELY: In a manner related to the structure, development, or presentation of a story or narrative.

1. The film was narratively structured to keep the audience engaged from start to finish.
2. In her essay, she argued that the novel was narratively rich and layered with meaning.
3. He approached the project narratively, weaving together multiple perspectives into a cohesive story.
4. The documentary was narratively compelling, drawing viewers into the lives of its subjects.
5. Narratively speaking, the ending provided a satisfying resolution to the complex themes presented throughout the book.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/narratively>