

NARROWNESS

Meaning: NARROWNESS: the quality or state of being narrow, characterized by limited width or extent.

1. The narrowness of the alley made it difficult for cars to pass through.
2. She admired the narrowness of the stream as it wound its way through the valley.
3. The architect was concerned about the narrowness of the building's entrance.
4. His perspective was limited by the narrowness of his experiences.
5. The narrowness of the path forced the hikers to walk in single file.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/narrowness>