

NASTILY

Meaning: In a manner that is unpleasant, harsh, or offensive, often causing discomfort or negativity.

1. She spoke nastily to her coworkers, leaving them feeling disheartened.
2. The rain fell nastily against the windows, creating a gloomy atmosphere inside.
3. He was reprimanded for acting nastily toward his classmates during the discussion.
4. The dog growled nastily at strangers, warning them to keep their distance.
5. She brushed off the criticism nastily, refusing to acknowledge any faults.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nastily>