

NATANT

Meaning: NATANT (adjective): swimming or floating in water; capable of moving through the water's surface.

1. The natant creatures glided gracefully through the water, their bodies shimmering in the sunlight.
2. As he observed the pond, he marveled at the variety of natant insects dancing on the surface.
3. The biologist noted that the natant species had adapted remarkably well to their aquatic environment.
4. In the calm lake, several natant frogs floated, their eyes peeking above the waterline.
5. The documentary showcased the vibrant life of natant organisms thriving in the coral reefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/natant>