

NATICOID

Meaning: NATICOID refers to a family of marine snails characterized by their distinctive shell structures, often found in various ocean habitats.

1. The naticoid family of snails is known for its unique shell structures.
2. Researchers discovered a new species of naticoid that thrives in deep ocean habitats.
3. Naticoid mollusks play a crucial role in the marine ecosystem by preying on other invertebrates.
4. The fossil record reveals a diverse range of naticoid species that existed millions of years ago.
5. A recent study examined the behavioral patterns of naticoid snails in response to environmental changes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/naticoid>