

NATIVENESS

Meaning: NATIVENESS refers to the quality of being native or inherent, often characterized by an authentic or original connection to a language, culture, or environment.

1. NATIVENESS in language learning often leads to a deeper understanding of cultural nuances.
2. The artist's work captured the NATIVENESS of rural life, showcasing its beauty and simplicity.
3. Her NATIVENESS in the community was evident in the way she effortlessly connected with everyone.
4. The debate about NATIVENESS versus globalization continues to shape discussions in anthropology.
5. NATIVENESS can sometimes be mistaken for naivety, but it often reflects genuine authenticity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nativeness>