

NATIVIST

Meaning: Nativist refers to a person who advocates for the interests of native inhabitants against those of immigrants, often driven by concerns over cultural identity and economic competition.

1. The nativist movement gained momentum as more people expressed concerns about immigration.
2. In her essay, she argued that nativist sentiments often stem from economic insecurity and cultural fear.
3. The politician's nativist policies were aimed at prioritizing citizens over immigrants in job opportunities.
4. Historically, nativist groups have often clashed with those advocating for multiculturalism and diversity.
5. Some scholars believe that nativist attitudes can lead to divisive social dynamics within communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nativist>