

NATURELESS

Meaning: Natureless: lacking natural elements or characteristics, often referring to environments that are artificial or devoid of nature.

1. The art exhibit showcased a series of natureless landscapes that highlighted urban desolation.
2. In a world increasingly dominated by technology, many people feel a sense of nostalgia for natureless environments.
3. The novel's setting presented a natureless society where artificial constructs replaced natural beauty.
4. His poetry captured the essence of a natureless existence, emphasizing the stark realities of modern life.
5. Critics argued that the film's portrayal of a natureless world served as a warning about environmental neglect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/natureless>