

NAUSEATE

Meaning: To cause someone to feel disgusted or to induce feelings of nausea.

1. The foul smell from the garbage began to nauseate everyone in the room.
2. She felt a wave of anxiety that could nauseate even the strongest of stomachs.
3. Watching the gruesome scenes in the horror movie was enough to nauseate him.
4. The overly rich dessert was so heavy that it started to nauseate her after just a few bites.
5. His constant complaints about the weather began to nauseate his friends during the trip.
6. The strong smell of the spoiled food began to nauseate everyone in the room.
7. Watching the graphic scenes in the horror film made her feel nauseated and uneasy.
8. He felt a wave of nausea rise as the roller coaster took a steep drop, nauseating him for the rest of the ride.
9. The thought of eating that overly rich dessert was enough to nauseate her after a heavy meal.
10. It was the constant motion of the boat that seemed to nauseate him during their trip on the lake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nauseate>