

NAY

Meaning: 'Nay' is an adverb used to express a strong negation or to emphasize a contrary point, often meaning "no" or "not only that."

1. Nay, I believe we should reconsider our options before making a decision.
2. She was determined to finish the project herself, nay, she would not accept help.
3. The crowd erupted in cheers, nay, they sang praises to their hero.
4. Nay, the evidence presented does not support your claim.
5. He insisted that, nay, it was not the time for celebration but for reflection.
6. He proposed a new plan, but she responded with a firm nay.
7. The committee voted on the measure, and nay votes outnumbered the ayes.
8. When asked if he would join the team, his response was a reluctant nay.
9. She considered the offer carefully before ultimately deciding on a nay.
10. Despite the enthusiasm around the project, several members voiced a resounding nay.
11. She offered a suggestion, but he responded with a firm nay.
12. The committee voted, and the result was a resounding nay to the proposal.
13. When asked if he would support the initiative, his answer was a decisive nay.
14. Despite the benefits outlined, many voiced a nay during the discussion.
15. In the face of criticism, she stood her ground and declared, nay, she would not back down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nay>