

NECKING

Meaning: NECKING (verb): Engaging in affectionate physical intimacy, such as kissing and cuddling, typically in a romantic context.

1. They were caught necking behind the old oak tree during the school picnic.
2. The couple spent the evening necking on the couch, lost in their own world.
3. As the sun set, they began necking on the beach, oblivious to everyone around them.
4. Necking became a common sight at the drive-in as couples enjoyed their time together.
5. During the concert, they couldn't resist necking in the back row, wrapped up in the music and each other.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/necking>