

NECROLOGIST

Meaning: A necrologist is a specialist who studies and documents the lives and deaths of individuals, often focusing on historical records of deceased persons.

1. The necrologist carefully examined the records to ensure all deceased individuals were accurately documented.
2. After years of studying the impact of mortality on society, she became a respected necrologist in her field.
3. During the conference, the necrologist presented her findings on the changing patterns of death in urban areas.
4. As a necrologist, he often reflects on the stories behind each name he records.
5. The necrologist's work revealed important trends in public health and aging populations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/necrologist>