NEEDILY

Meaning: In a manner that expresses a strong desire for attention or reassurance.

1. She reached out needily, her eyes searching for reassurance.
2. The puppy whined needily, looking up at its owner with hopeful eyes.
3. He spoke needily, as if his words could bridge the growing distance between them.
4. They gathered around the table, needily discussing their plans for the future.
5. The child clung to her mother needily, afraid of the dark corners of the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/needily