

NEER-DO-WELL

Meaning: A neer-do-well is a person who is lazy, irresponsible, or ineffectual, often causing trouble or failing to achieve anything meaningful.

1. The town was tired of the neer-do-well who always caused trouble at the local bar.
2. Despite his charm, everyone knew he was just a neer-do-well with no real ambitions.
3. Her parents warned her about dating a neer-do-well who had no job and no goals.
4. The neer-do-well managed to swindle money from unsuspecting tourists every summer.
5. Even though he was a neer-do-well, some still believed he could change for the better.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neer-do-well>