

NEGOTIABILITY

Meaning: Negotiability refers to the ability of a contract or financial instrument to be transferred or amended between parties.

1. The negotiability of the contract allowed both parties to make amendments before finalizing the agreement.
2. In financial transactions, the negotiability of a check determines how easily it can be transferred between parties.
3. The negotiability of the terms played a crucial role in reaching a consensus during the discussions.
4. She questioned the negotiability of the proposed settlement, feeling it could be improved for her client.
5. Understanding the negotiability of various assets is essential for investors looking to maximize their portfolios.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/negotiability>