

NEGOTIOUSNESS

Meaning: Negotiateness refers to the quality of being open to negotiation or discussion, allowing for flexibility and the expression of differing viewpoints in a collaborative context.

1. The negotiateness of the contract allowed both parties to express their concerns freely.
2. Her negotiateness stood out during the discussions, enabling a more amicable resolution.
3. In a world where negotiateness is often overlooked, effective communication can make all the difference.
4. The team appreciated the negotiateness of their leader, who facilitated open dialogue among members.
5. He emphasized the importance of negotiateness in diplomacy, suggesting that it paves the way for lasting agreements.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/negotiousness>