

NEOLITHIC

Meaning: Neolithic refers to the later part of the Stone Age, characterized by the development of agriculture and the establishment of permanent settlements.

1. The Neolithic period marked a significant transition from nomadic lifestyles to settled farming communities.
2. Archaeologists have uncovered numerous artifacts that provide insight into Neolithic societies.
3. The advent of agriculture during the Neolithic era revolutionized human civilization.
4. Neolithic architecture, such as megalithic structures, reveals the ingenuity of early builders.
5. Studying Neolithic art helps us understand the beliefs and values of ancient peoples.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neolithic>