

NEOLOGIZATION

Meaning: Neologization is the process of creating new words or expressions, often to describe emerging concepts or phenomena.

1. The neologization of terms in technology often reflects the rapid evolution of our digital landscape.
2. Her writings were notable for their creative neologization, introducing fresh vocabulary to engage readers.
3. The neologization process can lead to the emergence of slang that captures the essence of a generation.
4. Academics often debate the merits of neologization versus the preservation of traditional language forms.
5. In response to cultural shifts, neologization helps language adapt and stay relevant in contemporary society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neologization>