

NEOLOGIZE

Meaning: To neologize means to create or introduce new words or expressions into a language.

1. The writer decided to neologize in her latest novel, creating new words that captured the essence of her characters.
2. As technology evolves, it's essential for linguists to neologize and adapt language to reflect modern realities.
3. In his speech, he chose to neologize, introducing terms that resonated with the younger audience.
4. The trend of neologizing in social media has led to the rapid evolution of everyday language.
5. Artists often neologize to convey complex emotions that existing words fail to express.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neologize>