

NEONOMIANISM

Meaning: Neonomianism is a theological doctrine that emphasizes the role of moral law in the context of faith, suggesting that new interpretations of law are essential for understanding salvation.

1. Neonomianism offers a unique perspective on the relationship between faith and moral law.
2. The debate around neonomianism has sparked significant discussions among theologians.
3. Understanding neonomianism requires a deep dive into its historical and philosophical roots.
4. Critics of neonomianism argue that it undermines the traditional concept of grace.
5. Neonomianism challenges believers to reconsider how they view the role of obedience in their faith.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neonomianism>