

NEOPLASIA

Meaning: Neoplasia is the abnormal and uncontrolled growth of cells, leading to the formation of tumors that can be either benign or malignant.

1. Neoplasia can result in the formation of tumors that may be benign or malignant.
2. The diagnosis of neoplasia often requires a combination of imaging and histopathological examination.
3. Understanding the molecular mechanisms behind neoplasia is crucial for developing targeted therapies.
4. Certain environmental factors and genetic predispositions can increase the risk of neoplasia.
5. Early detection of neoplasia significantly improves the chances of effective treatment and survival.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neoplasia>