

NEOPLASM

Meaning: Neoplasm: an abnormal growth of tissue, which can be benign or malignant, often referred to in the context of tumors.

1. The doctor explained that a neoplasm could be benign or malignant, depending on its characteristics.
2. A biopsy was performed to determine whether the neoplasm was cancerous or not.
3. Research has shown that certain lifestyle choices can influence the development of neoplasms.
4. Understanding the genetic mutations that lead to neoplasms is crucial for developing targeted therapies.
5. The patient's symptoms were alarming, prompting further investigation into the nature of the neoplasm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neoplasm>