

NEOPLATONIC

Meaning: Neoplatonic refers to a philosophical system that builds on the ideas of Plato, emphasizing a transcendent reality and the existence of a singular ultimate source of all being.

1. The philosopher's work was deeply influenced by Neoplatonic ideas about the nature of existence.
2. In her lecture, she explored the Neoplatonic concept of the One as the ultimate source of reality.
3. Many Renaissance thinkers sought to reconcile Christian doctrine with Neoplatonic philosophy.
4. The Neoplatonic view emphasizes the importance of transcending the material world in pursuit of spiritual enlightenment.
5. His writings reflect a Neoplatonic perspective that values the relationship between the soul and the cosmos.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neoplatonic>