

NEOPLATONIST

Meaning: Neoplatonist refers to a follower or proponent of Neoplatonism, a philosophical system that emphasizes the existence of a single, transcendent source of reality and the interconnectedness of all existence.

1. The philosopher's views were heavily influenced by Neoplatonist thought, emphasizing the unity of existence.
2. In his latest book, the author explores the impact of Neoplatonist ideas on Renaissance art and literature.
3. Many scholars consider Plotinus to be the founder of the Neoplatonist school of philosophy.
4. The Neoplatonist perspective offers a unique interpretation of the relationship between the material and spiritual worlds.
5. During the late antiquity, Neoplatist thinkers sought to reconcile Plato's teachings with emerging religious concepts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neoplatonist>