

NEOTROPICAL

Meaning: Neotropical refers to the biogeographic region that includes tropical areas of Central and South America, characterized by high biodiversity and unique ecosystems.

1. The neotropical region is renowned for its incredible biodiversity and unique ecosystems.
2. Many species of plants and animals in the neotropical zone are found nowhere else on Earth.
3. Ecologists study neotropical habitats to understand the impacts of climate change on tropical forests.
4. The Amazon rainforest is one of the largest and most important neotropical ecosystems.
5. Conservation efforts in neotropical areas are crucial for preserving wildlife and indigenous cultures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neotropical>